GOOD MEN IN SIGHT

For the Wheeling Ball Club-Two Pitchers and Two Fielders.

The first trip of the Wheeling ball club under the new schedule has not proved so successful as the first series' trip, and the management, seeing that the Obio teams have been strengthened all around, are on the lookout for new players for the Wheeling club. Two pitchers, one a National league man, are in sight, also two fielders who have been playing in the Western league. With these men the team will be able to stay with anything in the league.

The Findlay club is scheduled to play on the Island grounds to-morrow and Saturday afternoons, but if possible, so as to avoid a conflict with the race meeting, Secretary Barrows will have two games played on Saturday and none on Friday. Twin Cities will be the Fourth of July attraction on the local grounds.

Glasscock's the Only Error.

Glascock's the Oaly Error.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 26.—Thirteen innings were required to decide the game between Washington and Brooklyn to-day. The contest was par excellence in every respect. Brooklyn did not make a misplay in the field, while the only error of the game was a fumble by Glasscock in the cieventh inning. Stein and Anderson, the pitchers, stood the strain well, and it was no fault of Anderson that the home term secured the three hits in the thirteenth inning which won the game. Iwo of the hits could have been stopped by quick fielding. The thirteenth inby quick fielding. The thirteenth in-ning was by far the most exciting of the day. The Washingtons got Cartweight as far as third, when two were out. An-derson's hot shot back of short stop, looked good for a base, but Corcoran, after a desperate run, corralled the ball about a foot from the ground. Brook-lya looked like winners in the eleventh, when they got Griffin on first and none by quick fielding. The thirteenth inwhen they got Griffin on first and none cut. Hassamer, however, caught out the next three batters. Attendance

THE CROWD WAS SLIM

So the Donley-Grace Glove Contest Did Not Come Off Last Night-Changes in Tonight's Programme

The second event in the Metropolitan's boxing carnival was the Dooley-Grace twenty-five round go, scheduled for last night. On account of the very slim crowd that was scated in the aroun at 10 o'clock it was determined to postne the Dooley-Grace encounter until pone the Dooley-Grace encounter unti-this evening when it will come off in connection with the Scanlan-Woods heavyweight battle. Money was re-funded to all who had purchased tick-defined to all who had purchased tickets.

Of course it is not possible to pull off two twenty-live round bouts in one evening, so the Metropolitan management have changed their programme somewhat. The first event on the programme this evening will be the four-round bout with Charley Oct and Harry Smith as the principals. Then Dooley and Grace will box ten rounds to a decision, instead of twenty-five, as was at first arranged. The final event will be the twenty-five-round contest between Scanlan and Woods.

Last night Manager "Teidy" Alexander, of the Mets, received a telegram from William A. Brady, the manager of Corbett and "Steve" O'Donnell, challenging on O'Donnell's behalf the winner of the Woods-Scanlan contest. It is possible that O'Donnell and the victor will meet in the Metropolitan arens.
